

Commissioner Information

Commissions are defined in this case as any product that does not currently exist in any online shop listing or requires extensive design processes to reach the desired result(s). They can be inquired about via email or direct messaging on social media platforms. Commissions are accepted and greatly appreciated, but there are restrictions that apply to them.

Pink Petal Development and their affiliates do NOT promote hateful or bigoted messages – commissions containing content like this are not taken into consideration for ANY reason.

There are rules that apply to Pink Petal Dev for sending commissions including, but not limited to...

- Weapons resembling firearms MUST have a bright orange tip on them
- NO METAL PROPS are created or sold by this shop
- We do not sell props that resemble weapons to anyone under the age of 16 years old

All designs for commissions are approved by the buyer prior to the start of the printing and finishing processes. If the files for this project do not exist and need to be designed, there is a required earnest money deposit of $15, this is a creation/design fee to compensate for the time and resources used in creating the files for the project. This deposit is non-refundable, no exceptions. Before printing commences, a 50% nonrefundable deposit (minus the earnest money deposit) is required. No printing of any kind for the project will take place before this deposit is paid.

Commission price is fully disclosed prior to moving the project into the printing stage.

The cost of the commission DOES NOT include shipping – this is a separate charge the buyer is responsible for. An estimate will be given at the time of pricing but is subject to change based on the carrier's rate changes.

If a commission is not paid in full within 1 month of project completion, the order is cancelled, and any deposits are forfeited*.

When inquiring about projects, please include reference pictures for the item you are requesting and information such as the size of the item, what it will be used for (cosplay prop, display, etc.), what it's referencing, your budget for the project, etc.

Returns are not accepted on commissioned pieces.

Lowball offers or haggling on prices will be ignored and/or chastised on social media for clout 😊

Please don't hit on the artist. She's just trying to do her job.

Thank you for your support and understanding!
